The war cloud is still in sight, and that is all.

The unsteadiness of the markets and the over-production of manufactures, have driven four per cent. bonds to $1.23 1/2.

Mr. Carlisle is an admirable gentleman, but what does that signify when he is to be opposed by the democratic party in congress.

An informal trial of the water-works at Madison has been made, and four streams were played over the roofs of the principal hotel, and was found to be satisfactory.

At one time William and Mary college, of Virginia, was one of the foremost in the land, and is one of the oldest. It has now closed its doors, probably forever, as at the beginning of the school year only one student was present.

Mr. Ker, the Chicago bank thief, is now doing duty in the penitentiary at Joliet. He held a responsible position in the well-known banking house of Preston, Kern & Co., and drew a good salary. He spent money freely and wanted greater sums than he could legitimately get in his possession, and therefore resorted to stealing. He stole $44,000, and escaped to South America, but was caught there and extradited, returned to Chicago, tried, convicted, and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary. If he lives, and believes himself, he will get out in a little over six years. He can now keep Agull company, and the two, in the quiet moments of prison life, will be told by their consociates, that the way of the transgressor is hard.

There has been a change in the editorial management of the Milwaukee Sentinel, by the retirement of Mr. H. C. Cary, and Mr. J. L. Stuckney taking his place. The Evening Wisconsin says the "new incumbent of the important position is a stranger in Milwaukee. He entered journalism in the service of the Chicago Tribune in 1873. At the outbreak of the Russo-Turkish war he took up a residence in London, as the Tribune's war correspondent, and remained abroad writing letters to the Tribune for three years. The position which he gave up upon entering into his present engagement was that of general editorial writer for the Philadelphia Record. Mr. Stuckney is about 35 years of age. He is of the blonde order of beauty, and will certainly not lower the high average of good looks which Milwaukee newspaper men as a body have long maintained." Mr. Cary made an excellent managing editor, and it is hoped that a position worthy of his enterprise and ability, is in store for him.

A correspondent of the Salt Lake Tribune says that Thomas Nast, the caricaturist, "appeared at the office of Harper & Brothers, New York, one day, a green-looking fellow, and asked for a job. He was laughed at; but in order to get rid of him they told him to sketch one of the ferries. He was gone for a few hours and returned to show a piece of work so faithful and full of life, so original and stamped with genius, that he was immediately engaged." This is an error. The man who first "discovered" Thomas Nast, was the late Frank Leslie. The boy applied for a position—that was in 1836—and Mr. Leslie thinking it would be a good joke on young Nast, told him to make a sketch of one of the Fulton ferry boats as it was about to land on the New York side. This was one Saturday afternoon and was a great day for the ferries. Nast went down to the foot of Fulton, took his position, made his sketch, and that afternoon returned to Mr. Leslie's office with his picture. It pleased Mr. Leslie very much, and Thomas was hired at $10 a week. He made rapid advancement, not only becoming the foremost caricaturist of the age, but a scholar and a rare gentleman, and to-day he has all of fame and fortune that any mortal needs.

The Janesville Gazette says Blaine's letter "will show the absolute ridiculousness of levying more taxes than the government knows what to do with, and may lead to reform." Will the Gazette be as kind as to tell what it means by reform? Is it for abolishing the tax on tobacco, beer and whisky? If yes, it is for "free whisky." If it would reduce the tariff and thus lessen the revenue, it is a tariff reformer; and the Democrat welcomes it to the ranks of the party which is to sweep the country and dislodge many a hoary beast in tariff taxation.—Madison Democrat.

The Gazette stands for reform so far as reducing the revenue is concerned, when that reform shall not work disastrous results to the manufacturing interests of this country. A protectionist may consistently hold that the tariff should be taken off certain articles that are not worth protecting, and there are some of these still very largely protected. Then again, the internal revenue may be reduced without having "free whisky." Some of the $47,000,000 on tobacco may be taken off which would be a greater benefit to tobacco growers than it would be to consumers. Such reforms as these might rightfully be inaugurated without attacking the principle of protection, and also without giving the democratic party what it is clamoring for, "free whisky."

THE COST OF THE GOVERNMENT. The totals of the several departments at Washington, have made estimates for the annual expenses of the government for the coming fiscal year. The treasury department will want about $137,000,000, which is about the same as last year.

The interior department calls for $57,000,000, and the Indians will take about $9,000,000. The estimate for the interior department are considerably less than last year.

The war department wants $16,000,000 and the navy $25,000,000. It will cost nearly $4,000,000 to run congress through the coming year. The salary of the senators is $850,000 and that of the members of the house $1,605,000, making the salary of members of congress about $2,000,000 a year. The mileage for the year is estimated at $33,000 for the senators, and $110,000 for the house.

The total amount estimated to be required for all expenses of the government is $283,155,355, which is $22,318,282 less than the aggregate appropriations for the present fiscal year, and $7,153,857 less than the sum called for in the estimates submitted last year. The appropriations for the present fiscal year, including deficiencies and miscellaneous, were $305,438,587. The estimates upon which those appropriations were based, called for $310,250,162.

MORE LAND FOR THE SOLDIERS. There does not seem to be an end to the legislation at Washington for the soldiers. All sorts of schemes are on foot. One of them is so generous as to favor the granting of a life pension to every man who served in the war of the rebellion, and among the soldiers the plan is enthusiastically received. The schemes for more pensions are chiefly originated and supported by the claim agents which infest the city of Washington; and so long as they have their being, there will be new plans on which to pension the soldiers of the late war.

General Logan has introduced a bill in the senate which is designed to take the place of the whole pension scheme. It provides that every person entering the service of the country during the late war, either in the army or navy, and honorably discharged therefrom, for any period of service less than one year, is entitled to eighty acres of the public domain, either for himself or his heirs; for service between one and two years, 120 acres; and over two years service 160 acres. This will be regarded by many as extravagant, but it provides for a much better disposition of the public domain than the present plan of dealing it out to speculators. Senator Plumb, of Kansas, has another bill before the senate, which provides that every non-commissioned officer, private, or other persons discharged from the army during the war of the rebellion within two years from the date of enlistment, on account of disability incurred in the line of military duty, shall receive a warrant for 100 acres of land. Both of these schemes have more or less merit in them, but whether the bills will pass is a doubtful question. So much has been done in the way of rewarding the soldiers and sailors of the country, that there is a very strong opposition to any further grant of lands or money to them.

THE FINANCIAL OUTLOOK.

The multiplying of failures (a large majority of them being in the east) shows that there has been a reaction from the extraordinary success of business in 1882 and 1883. Manufacturers, trade and commerce were then in a remarkably fine condition. Speculations ran high. The march westward of tens of thousands of persons seeking new homes in the territories, inspired many kinds of business. Railways were lavished in the expenditures in extending their lines. The business was overdone generally as can be seen from the present condition of things both east and west.

Henry Clow & Co., of New York, one of the most substantial banking firms in the country, have issued a circular in which they give the influences calculated to effect the market unfavorably in the early future, and are as follows:

1. The year is likely to close with the same misgivings at the financial centres as have prevailed for some time past, and the winding up may be accompanied with some failures.

2. The financial questions to be raised at the present session of congress are calculated to have a more or less unsettled effect.

3. If congress should yield to the prevailing pressure for a material reduction of taxation, which would mean a corresponding curtailment of the liquidation of government bonds—it would follow that an annual demand for $100,000,000 of new securities created by these liquidations would be to that extent curtailed, which would amount to a very substantial influence upon prices.

4. The attitude of the Chicago & North-western and the Milwaukee and St. Paul railroads towards the Iowa pool suggests the possibility of a severe competition among the western companies.

5. But on the other side they give the following as among the probabilities favoring the market:

1. The money market is likely to remain easy during the winter and spring months.

2. The depression in business is chiefly confined to the seaboard centers of trade, while in the grain-growing and western mining states and in the cotton states there is little complaint, business being reasonably active and collections easy.

3. The crops of the current year have been ample and, although slow in coming to market, should afford the basis for a healthy spring business.

4. The earnings of the railroads continue to show a large increase on those of last year, and as there has been a fall in the price of iron and supplies generally these corporations should show a good result from the year's business.

5. There is reason to think that current estimates of the general state of business draw exaggerated conclusions from special symptoms seen at certain centres but not in the country at large.

6. The foreign exchanges appear likely to run in favor of this country for some time to come, for the exports of cotton are large and the shipment of our wheat surplus cannot be much longer delayed, while the imports of merchandise are very conservative.

A Fair Offer. The Voltaic Belt company, Marshall,

Mich., offer to send Dr. Dye's Voltaic Belt and Appliances on trial, for trial for thirty days, to men, young or old, afflicted with nervous debility, lost vitality, and kindred troubles. See advertisement in this paper.

AMONG THE SOLDIERS. History of the Day at the Home Centre of Interest.

The Contest for Positions on the House Committee—National Republican Convention—The Mexican Veterans—Capital Items.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 7.—Representative Butler, of Missouri, stated to a press reporter that he had had a conference with Speaker Carlisle and was informed that the speaker had made a list of the new members of the house, which he had placed in the hands of friends for the purpose of ascertaining the standing business parts of the new congress, and he had exercised the right of formation of the committee, and that Speaker Carlisle said he did not think it possible for him to announce the committee before week after next, just before the holiday recess. The Kentucky member of the speaker to place John Blackburn at the head of the committee on appropriations, and it is said that the matter is being made personal on the entire delegation. The speaker determined to give the position to Mr. Blackburn, and the Kentucky members say that it would be of ill grace to do so, under the circumstances. They say that when Mr. Randall was speaker four years ago he ignored Mr. Blackburn and refused to consider the suggestion for the delegation as a whole; that Mr. Blackburn exerted his best efforts for the election of Carlisle, and that it would be more than ungrateful for Carlisle now to pass over Blackburn to honor Randall, his opponent. Carlisle is said to have taken the question under serious consideration. An effort is being made to leave the committee on appropriations in advance of the other house committees, and it is thought probable that Speaker Carlisle will be able to announce the committee next week.

National Republican Convention. WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 7.—The country in some measure which is regarded by many as a very grave injustice in the present representation of the Republican national convention, which gives states and districts all over the country the same vote, in proportion to population, regardless of the populousness of the district, is being considered. An effort is being made to have the committee on elections appointed in advance of the other house committees, and it is thought probable that Speaker Carlisle will be able to announce the committee next week.

No Circumvent "Riders." WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 7.—The joint resolution introduced by Senator Lapham in relation to the veto power, proposes the following amendment to article 1 of the constitution: "If any bill or resolution passed by congress contains items of appropriations of money, he may object to one or more of the provisions of such bill while approving the remainder of its provisions. In such case he shall attach to the bill at the time of signing it a statement of the provisions to which he objects, and the bill shall transmit to the house, in which the bill originated, a copy of such statement, and the provisions objected to shall be separately considered. If on reconsideration one or more of such provisions be approved by two-thirds of the members of each house, the same shall be part of the law, notwithstanding the objection of the president. All the provisions of the bill in relation to bills not approved by the president shall apply in cases in which he shall withhold his approval from any provision or provisions contained in a bill approving provisions."

The Mexican Veterans. WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 7.—The tenth annual reunion of the National Association of Mexican Veterans opened here at noon. There was a large assemblage of gray-haired veterans present from different sections of the country. Gen. J. W. Denver, president of the association, called the meeting to order. Hon. R. T. Merrick delivered an address of welcome to the veterans, and Gen. J. W. Denver responded. Gen. Rosencrans made a speech, promising to turn his attention to congress to providing pensions for the veterans. The following officers for the ensuing year were unanimously elected: Gen. J. W. Denver, president; Gen. M. D. Manson, first vice president; A. M. Keane, secretary; S. V. Niles, treasurer. Resolutions were adopted expressing gratification at the peaceful relations with Mexico and hoping that war between the two countries would never again be possible.

Congressional Summary. WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 7.—In the senate petitions were presented from the legislature of Nebraska to amend the law as to force railroads to take out patents on their land grants, and from the Astoria chamber of commerce to forbid lands granted to the Oregon Central railroad. Mr. Garland introduced a bill to release the Memphis & Little Rock road from conditions which unjustly affect it, and to adjust differences on account of customs duties on iron. Mr. Cannon presented a measure to restore to the market certain lands in Minnesota and Wisconsin reserved for mines and reservoirs. Mr. Croome handed in an act to construct the Maryland and Delaware free ship canal as a means of defense. Mr. Lapham proposed an amendment to the constitution giving women the right of suffrage. Nothing of interest was done in the house.

Capital Notes. WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 7.—The offices of the clerk and doorkeeper are crowded by the democratic members who want to leave when they could designate one for positions. Clerk Clark says he has upwards of 500 applications for about thirty-five positions. Senator Mahone's excuse for not attending the recent Republican caucus was that he did not receive his invitation in time. Representative King, of Louisiana, has prepared a bill which provides that the compensation of women in the government departments shall be the same as that of men for a similar grade of work. Thomas O. Toole, of Missouri, will be appointed chief clerk under Clerk Clark of the house of representatives.

Reception to Mrs. Hayes. CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—Mrs. John N. Hayes, of Dearborn avenue, gave a magnificent reception in honor of Mrs. ex-President Hayes. It was the social event of the season.

EUROPEAN NEWS. Great Conflagrations at Brussels and Constantinople.

The Belgian Parliament House Destroyed—China and France—The Dogs of War Tugging at the Leash.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 7.—While the deputies were in session the Belgian chambers were discovered to be on fire. The flames, raised by the draft from the ventilating shafts, spread rapidly. A strong northeast wind added fuel to the conflagration. Firemen bravely fought the flames, but their efforts were greatly useless. At 10 o'clock the fire was under control.

The chamber of deputies and outlying building area a mass of ruins. The officers of the department of foreign affairs and the department of education and only slight damage. The senate chamber proper escaped the flames.

The famous library, containing many rare books and important documents was destroyed. Fortunately the archives of the foreign office were saved.

Several houses were injured, and it is reported that many grenadiers were killed beneath falling walls. It is believed the first origin of the fire was in the chamber of deputies, where a lamp-tuner had been placed.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 7.—The fire in the Jewish quarter destroyed 40 dwelling houses, a Greek church and four Jewish synagogues. A snow storm was prevailing at the time of the fire, which added greatly to the sufferings of the people rendered homeless by the fire.

The Dogs of War Impatient. LONDON, Dec. 7.—The St. James's Gazette financial article says an unconfirmed report on the stock-exchange that war between France and China had been declared caused excitement and a general decline in prices. Nothing is known here, however, of the report of a conflict between the two nations.

FRANCE, Dec. 7.—The Chinese government refused to withdraw or modify its claim regarding Tonquin, and professes war to the surrender of the province to France. Large bodies of troops are continually passing Hong Kong for the Tonquin coast.

PARIS, Dec. 7.—Admiral Courbet, telegraphing under date of Hanoi, Nov. 27, that he is still preparing for the campaign.

FRANCE states that Admiral Peyron has telegraphed the projects of the maritime departments that since a first dispatch, the troops for Tonquin are not expected to be necessary to continue any steps begun by ship owners for employment of transports. This statement is not confirmed.

LA LIBERTE states that the event which the government expects as likely to remove the disputes is not so much the outbreak of a military expedition as China's accession to the terms of the treaty which has been suggested by England. The Telegraph says that the French government has sent a note to Prince Kistler, asking a suspension of war preparations in Tonquin, to prevent a conflict which might compromise the negotiations.

LONDON, Dec. 7.—It is authoritatively stated that Germany and Italy have accepted the invitation of England to send an army of war to China to protect neutrals in case of war between China and France. The reply of the United States to the same invitation is anxiously awaited.

Horrible Story of Russian Prison Life. VERVA, Dec. 7.—A Russian nobleman now imprisoned in the fortress of Sigtava and Pori, writes to The Will of the People, detailing the horrors which surround him. The letter, which the writer states is written with his blood, says that he is sick, and is not allowed to see a physician.

He has no occupation, and is left with insufficient food to slowly starve away. Many persons have been horribly beaten and rendered insane by numerous cruelties. Madame Tsvetkova was recently outraged and poisoned, and Madame Jakimova constantly watches by her husband's bed, who has refused the calls should devour it. The women as a rule are subjected to infinitely worse treatment than the men.

A Duel Has Been Arranged. ROM, Dec. 7.—Signor Lovito, under secretary of the interior, was assaulted within the precincts of the legislative chambers by Signor Nicotru, a deputy, who spit in his face, and battered him for having conferred a decoration upon a journalist, against whom the deputy had a grievance. Nicotru is one of those who, though members of the left, have joined the extreme radicals in opposing the present ministry.

A duel has been arranged between Signors Nicotru and Lovito in consequence of the affair.

NEW PUBLICATIONS. A Comprehensive Biographical Dictionary. Messrs. Porter & Coates, of Philadelphia, have recently published a valuable book of reference, being a comprehensive biographical dictionary, by E. A. Thomas, large 12mo, price only $2.50. The aim of the publishers of this work is to present in convenient size and at moderate price a comprehensive dictionary of biography, embracing accounts of the most eminent personages in all ages, countries and professions.

During the last quarter of a century so many important events have been enacted, such as the civil war in America and the Franco-Prussian war of 1870, and such great advances have been made in the line of invention and scientific investigation, that within that period many persons have risen by superior merit to conspicuous positions; and as the plan of this work embraces accounts of the living as well as the dead, many names are included that are not to be found in other dictionaries of biography.

THE GAZETTE.
FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7.
OLD OCEAN WINDMILL.
Fearful Loss of Life in the Late
Terrible Gale.

An Additional List of Thirty-Eight Persons Lost at Sea, and a Total of Sixty-Eight—Others Missing.

GLoucester, Mass., Dec. 7.—Seaboard
Rough Riders, Maud F. Leighton and Sal-tuna are now being towed by the tugboat in the terrible gale of November 12. The ray of hope for their return has vanished, and their owners with relatives have given out the crew lists. The tugboat from this port October 17 to Provincetown for last sailing for Gloucester from there October 30 with the following crew: Captain, Horace Tuck, who leaves a wife and three children, Joseph James, Tuck, Giles, Andrew B. Chubb, a native of Shosbourne, N. S., Marjorie Powers of Carroll, William Sawyer, Daniel Chisholm, Michael Hall, Dennis Sohier, Stanley Pool of Suel-bourne, Isaac Savarich and Fred Allmeyer.
The tugboat was built in 1887.
She was owned by James Mansfield & Sons.
She was insured in the Gloucester Mutual Fishing Insurance company for $5,000 on the vessel and $500 on the outfit. The schooner Maud F. Leighton sailed from this port October 20, and proceeded to Provincetown, and after procuring bait sailed therefrom for Gloucester more than five weeks ago.
She had a crew of twelve men, viz: Capt.
Peter L. Peterson, Peter Johnson, Charles
Webster, Andrew Webster, John Lester,
Philip Lester, Martin Brown, Peter Larson,
Frederick Smith, James McLeod, Christian
Lawson, a man named Grier alias Brown was cook. The Maud Leighton was a first-class vessel, owned by Andrew Leighton, and was insured in the Gloucester Mutual Fishing Insurance company for $7,500 on the vessel and $750 on the outfit. The schooner Saltuna sailed from this port for the western seas, and was owned by James Mansfield & Sons. She had a crew of fourteen men, viz: Capt. Fabian McDonald, Cook Lorman
Boulton, James Smith, Lawrence Smith
(brothers), Richard Downes, James
John McLean (brothers), Charles H. Murray, William Connor, Peter McLean, John Curry, Charles Publicover, Charles Brown. The Saltuna was owned by Andrew Leighton and was insured in the Gloucester Mutual Fishing Insurance company for $5,000 on the vessel, and $500 on the outfit. The whole number of men on board these vessels was thirty-eight, which makes the total number lost in the late gale sixty-eight. The schooner Rutherford B. Hayes is also given up, but the owners refuse to give the crew list.

The Daily Men Adjourn.
CINCINNATI, Dec. 7.—The National Butcher and Egg association assembled at Smith and Nixon's hall at 10 a. m., President McDonald in the chair. The session opened by the report of W. H. Todd, of New York, chairman of the states committee. Joseph Sampson, of Iowa, then read an interesting article on "Commerces on the Frontier." He said that milk from cows fed on wild grass would make as good butter as that made from tame grasses. It was followed by H. R.
Alward, of New York. In an address on "Progressive Agriculture." The next business order was the election of officers.
The following officers were elected: J. J.
McDonald, of Philadelphia, president; Col.
M. L. Little, of Iowa, secretary, and H.
F. Patterson, of Cincinnati, vice president.
Ohio. After extending a vote of thanks to the Cincinnati members of the association for their hospitality, the convention adjourned.

Where the Woodbine Twined.
FORT SMITH, Dec. 7.—Plunkett & Wright, the leading traders in the town of Lenora and this city, have failed with no assets, and liabilities of $1,000. It is reported that they have recently been selling goods at half price, regardless of cost. When the creditors became alarmed and secured writs of attachment, they found that Plunkett & Wright had shipped with their remaining goods into the Indian Territory.

New York, Dec. 7.—Reports from Ogden
Utah, N. Y., say that George W. Sybil, Curtis, member of the assembly elected for the First St. Lawrence district, has made an assignment, with liabilities about $50,000;
assets not yet ascertained.

Despatches from St. Louis say the A. S.
Palmer Manufacturing company, sales, doors, etc., have made an assignment, with liabilities of $70,000; assets, $25,000.

The New Niagara River Bridge.
LOCKPORT, N. Y., Dec. 7.—D. W. Burrows, superintendent of the Central road, with pony engine No. 531, Engineer R. M. Chapman, made the fastest trip over taken over the new bridge at Niagara Falls. Among the railing the passage on the new bridge was Sybil Ryland of the bridge company, Engineer Schneider and wife, Engineers True and son, Mr. Mitchell, contractor, Atty. Gimes of the New York Central, A. S. Weston, real-estate representative of the press, and others. The bridge seemed as firm under the engine as it built on solid ground. Shortly afterward a work train of six cars and engine, with probably two hundred persons on board, passed over without the slightest swaying motion.
The bridge was quickly inspected by Superintendent Burrows and the engineers as the trip was being made, and everything pronounced satisfactory. The formal opening is now announced to occur on the 30th inst.

The Peasantry Famine.
HOBOKEN, Dec. 7.—Charles F. Freeman, the religious enthusiast, who killed his little daughter, Edith, in May, 1879, and whose trial ended in his being found guilty, because of insanity, has gone to the state lunatic hospital at Danvers. He left the jail at Barnstable in company with his wife, and came to Boston by way of the Old Colony road. He was neatly dressed and had in his hand a small pocket book. He laid down in the same seat in the car and chatted pleasantly together during the trip. She will accompany him to Danvers, and after bidding him good-by will return to Lynn, where she now lives, and engage in dressing.

Railway News.
DES MOINES, Iowa, Dec. 7.—The stockholders of the Cedar Rapids, Iowa Falls & Northwestern railroad company have voted to increase the capital stock from $1,000,000 to $1,800,000, and to divide the railroad
into three sections, to be known as the Iowa, Minnesota and Dakota divisions. The additional capital stock is to be for the purpose of building an extension of the road from Washington, Minn., to Bismarck, Dak.

"This Is the Truth."
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Capt. Greene, of the life saving station at Long Beach, N. Y., reports to Sup. Kimball that a hideous sea monster 100 feet long, with horns and blow holes, was seen off the beach at Long Beach a few days. Capt. Greene closes his report with the remark: "This is the truth."

"A God-Send."
The children of Israel were once fed by manna, sent from Heaven. This was an undoubted case of "God-send." The manification of human life and ailments has been often undertaken, and as often failed. Ely's Cream Balm, however,
"has weighed in the balance and as often failed." It is a sovereign, speedy cure, and pleasant cure for Catarrh, and thousands of persons have attested this fact. "Ely's Cream Balm is a God-send," wrote Mrs. M. A.
Jackson, of Portsmouth, N. H., on May 22, 1882. "I had Catarrh for several years; but no cure. Two or three times a week my nose would bleed quite freely, and I thought the sores in it would never heal. Your balm has cured me." This preparation is not a liquid or a snuff, as is easily ascertained. It is a cream, and to experiment with injurious snuffs and injections when a pleasant and certain cure is at hand.

Sold by Palmer & Stevens and Peacock & Evenson.

Perfect Success.
These two words have a vast meaning when fully comprehended. A perfect success can be truthfully applied to Dr.
Jones' Red Clover Tonic, which cures dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, all diseases of the kidneys, liver and bladder; it keeps the skin clear and bright, drives away pimples and makes the general health excellent. Price 50 cents, of Stearns & Baker.

Colton's Liquid Bitter Tonic is condensed by physicians. Ask for Colton's; no other. Of Druggists.

WORKING UP THE MATTER.
Movements for Securing the National Republican Convention.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 7.—Postmaster H. C.
Payne, secretary of the Wisconsin Republican state central committee, and H. C. Payne, a member of the national Republican committee, left for Washington City to attend a meeting of the last named body.
Mr. Payne stated to a correspondent, just before starting, that the discussion of a meeting of the national convention for the purpose of securing the Republican national convention for Chicago. All or nearly all western men favored Chicago, as well as many eastern and southern ones, and it is hardly the only available place in the west, in fact, contends he said, that Chicago would be decided upon.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 7.—A meeting of delegates from a number of Republican organizations has been held to make arrangements to visit Washington City on Wednesday evening next for the purpose of urging the Republican national executive committee to select Philadelphia as the place for the meeting of the national convention. The meeting was held at the residence of the Union League, Union Republican, Young Republican, Republican Inquiries and Canadian club.

THE HENNEPIN CANAL.
An Illinois Man Talks—A Presidential Prediction.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Mr. Davis T.
Little, of Springfield, Ill., is here in the interest of the Hennepin canal. As a member of the executive committee of that association, he is desirous of securing from congress an appropriation of $100,000 with which to commence the work. Two bills will be introduced at an early day looking to the construction of the canal, one in the senate and one in the house. Mr. Little expresses himself as rather doubtful that his bill will pass at this session, "but," he continued grimly, "we'll hammer away at it until we do it." After some further conversation on general subjects, the matter of the next presidential election was introduced. "I venture the prediction," said he in reply to a leading question, "that within thirty days Logan will be the most pronounced candidate before the next nominating convention of all the gentlemen now named in that connection.
Will be stronger than Arthur. Why? Arthur has no following whatever."

Travelling on Irish Affairs.
ENGLAND, Dec. 7.—Mr. G. O. Trevelyan, chief secretary for Ireland, speaking at Gal-lisliff, mentioned Messrs. Biggar, Hoyle and others in terms far from complimentary.
He stated the government for its leniency to these capitalists and financiers. "The government," he said, "at all times sought capitalism to fill responsible offices without regard to religion. The O'Connor Don, in his recent speech in parliament, had been overzealous in serving the Catholics, and his astounding statements had done incalculable injury to the cause he sought to benefit.
The man who can sincerely assert that the existence of a crime which should be punished by death, is dangerous either as a guide or a follower. The Irish people, the speaker said, are rapidly becoming more self-reliant, and it left to themselves would no doubt be law-abiding and self-restraining.
But if you are not satisfied with the result of the election, you are not satisfied with the
